Loved Best

By: Cat Marinucci
Adapted by Roberta Jacobs
swooned

• If you had a terrible shock or surprise that made you faint or fall, you might have swooned.

• When might a person swoon?
astonished

• When you are amazed and surprised by something, you are astonished.

• When would you be astonished: when you see an elephant on TV or when there is an elephant in the schoolyard?
If you feel envious, you want something that someone else has.

Would you be envious of a friend’s toy that you also had or a toy that you didn’t have?
rivalry

• People who are have a rivalry are competing against each other for something.

• Would there be a rivalry between players on the same team or on two different teams?
Encouraging

- Encouraging is something that gives someone hope or confidence.
- Do you want to hear encouraging words? Why or why not.
brief

• If something is brief, it does not take much time.
• If you ran for a brief time, would you be tired?
chuckling

• Chuckling is when you are laughing quietly to yourself.
• Would you hear chuckling at a funny movie or a sad movie?
soothing

• Something that is soothing makes you feel calm.
• Would the sound of a loud motor or the sound of a fountain be soothing?
sobbed

• Sobbed - someone who cried very hard.

• Why might someone have sobbed at the end of a day? Explain.
praised

• If you have praised someone, you have told that person that he or she did something well.

• When have you been praised?